This form is marked with a large diagonal black 'X' across the entire box.

You will recall that on 2 October 1952 you furnished Mr. Wolf a Personal History Statement in accordance with his request.

We have made the best effort possible to locate a position commensurate with your education, training, and experience. I regret to inform you, however, that at this time we are unable to locate a suitable vacancy for you. While we would like to take advantage of your many qualifications, our present situation is such that we are unable to do so. Like all private or governmental organizations we are regularly faced with the problem of absorbing into new or vacant positions our personnel who have been displaced by shifts in workloads or reorganizations. Recent shifts in personnel needs within our organization have provided us with adequate staffing in the fields in which you are most qualified.

We sincerely regret that the outcome could not have been more favorable. Your interest in this Agency is appreciated and we shall be glad to retain your application for consideration against any future needs where your services could be utilized.

Sincerely yours,

STATINTL
